

ANNEX A – MID-AUTUMN FESTIVITIES AT GARDENS BY THE BAY

MID-AUTUMN @ GARDENS BY THE BAY 2018 (滨海花园庆中秋)

Lantern sets depicting the fantastical will adorn Gardens by the Bay this Mid-Autumn Festival. Based on the theme Autumn of Fantasies (奇幻之秋), these marvellous lantern sets depict a diversity of worlds unfettered by reality, from mythical creatures to larger-than-life flora and fauna. Adding to the atmosphere is a bustling marketplace at the Supertree Grove, where visitors can enjoy cultural performances, a food street, and a showcase of traditional Chinese crafts.

Date: 6 – 24 September

Time: Timing varies (refer to programme below)

Location: Gardens by the Bay

Details: Programmes are free unless otherwise indicated. For more details, visit www.gardensbythebay.com.sg/midautumn.

Programme*	Date	Time	Location
Lantern Displays (巨型灯展)	6 – 24 September	7pm – 11pm	Various locations
Colonnade of Lights (灯廊)		7pm – 11pm	Colonnade (Supertree Grove)
Wish upon a Floating Lotus (许愿灯)		6pm to 10pm (Mon – Thu) 6pm to 11pm (Fri – Sun)	Dragonfly Lake
Golden Wishing Tree (许愿树)			Floral Clock
Food Street (美食街)			Supertree Grove
Fun Zone (互动区)
Traditional Village (传统市集)
Lantern Riddles (猜灯谜)		7.30pm to 9pm (Sun – Thu) 7.30pm to 9.30pm (Fri – Sat)
Cultural Performances (传说传艺庆中秋)		8pm – 8.45pm (Mon – Thu) 7pm – 7.45pm & 8pm – 8.45pm (6 Sep & Fri – Sun)
Garden Rhapsody: Tales of the Moon (花园狂想曲: 夜游月曲)	6 – 30 September	7.45pm & 8.45pm

* Information correct as of 6 September 2018 and may be subject to change.

Lantern Displays

Celebrate an Autumn of Fantasies with dazzling lantern sets that bring together imaginary worlds and natural wonders. In Leaping over the Dragon's Gate, our widest lantern set to date spanning 70m across water, carps brave the strong currents as they swim upstream towards the Dragon's Gate in the hope of turning into a dragon. Other highlights include The Phoenix and the Peony, which symbolises nobility, harmony and affluence, and the Sandersonia Arch, which is lined with lanterns shaped like the Sandersonia flower, also known as the Chinese Lantern Lily.

Colonnade of Lights

The Colonnade transforms into a resplendent gallery of lanterns, each hand-painted with love by the community.

Wish upon a Floating Lotus

Set your wishes afloat on a lighted lotus lantern as it drifts along the beautiful Dragonfly Lake. Charges apply.

Golden Wishing Tree

Pen well wishes for your loved ones and drape them over the magnificent Golden Wishing Tree. Charges apply.

Food Street

Indulge in a spread of local and Asian delights at the Supertree Grove!

Fun Zone

Try your hand at traditional local games like Goli and Kuti Kuti, as well as other exciting games! Charges apply to selected games.

Traditional Village

Marvel at the deftness of Chinese artisans as they create intricate dough figurines, sugar art and stone engravings. You can even try on traditional Chinese costumes and take a photo against elaborate lantern sets. Charges apply to purchase of crafts and rental of costumes.

Lantern Riddles

Lantern riddles are a traditional game often enjoyed during the Mid-Autumn Festival. Have a go and discover more about the Chinese language and culture!

Cultural Performances

Curated by co-organiser, the National Arts Council, the free nightly cultural programme will present opportunities for visitors to enjoy and be inspired by Singapore's rich heritage. Appreciate vibrant and diverse traditional arts performances by home-grown arts groups of different genres, cultures and ages, and bond over the creative interpretations of the theme Fantastic Traditions.

Garden Rhapsody: Tales of the Moon

Adding to the Mid-Autumn festivities is a special edition of the Garden Rhapsody! Immerse yourself in a breathtaking choreography of lights and music inspired by legends and songs of the moon.