

ANNEX A – MID-AUTUMN FESTIVITIES AT GARDENS BY THE BAY

MID-AUTUMN FESTIVAL 2019 (滨海花园庆中秋)

Mid-Autumn Festival returns to Gardens by the Bay this year with the theme “Legacies”, which showcases Chinese stories, traditions and practices that have been passed down for generations, through magnificent lantern sets, cultural performances and engaging activities. Take a stroll inside the Gardens’ first giant revolving lantern and watch the story of Chang E unfold on the moving murals. Capture the breath-taking sight of a Chinese landscape painting over water in the longest ever display of floating lanterns at the Festival. Adding to the festivities are more than 2,250 lanterns hand-painted by the community and a myriad of programmes ranging from arts and music performances to games and food.

Date: Friday, 30 August – Sunday, 15 September

Lantern Sets

Enjoy breath-taking lantern sets depicting stories steeped in Chinese tradition and heritage. Don't miss our longest ever display of floating lanterns stretching over 120m, and take a stroll inside our very first giant revolving lantern!

Colonnade of Lights

Stroll by the Colonnade of Lights and enjoy these displays of lanterns painted by people from all walks of life. Catch a glimpse of whimsical imagination decorated by many creative hands.

Illuminations of Joy

Showcasing hand-painted lanterns by seniors from seven social service organisations, this display celebrates both the festivity of Mid-Autumn and the creative expressions of our seniors.

Cultural Performances

As friends and family gather to celebrate Mid-Autumn Festival this year at Gardens by the Bay, let us bring the theme of “Legacies” to life through the traditional arts. Situated in the midst of the dazzling Supertree Grove, the central stage will showcase the life, vigour and diversity of traditional arts, including innovative interpretations and multi-cultural performances Wednesdays through to Sundays.

Lantern Riddles

A traditional game, lantern riddles are often enjoyed during the Mid-Autumn Festival. Have a go and discover more about the Chinese language and culture!

Food Street***

Indulge in a spread of Asian delights along the Colonnade at the Supertree Grove!

*Charges apply

Garden Rhapsody: A Journey through Asia

Journey through Asia and immerse in rich and diverse soundscapes as the Supertrees light up your imagination of this magnificent part of the world! Enjoy evergreen classics like 《夜来香》, 《甜蜜蜜》, “Bengawan Solo”, “Dayung Sampan”, “Sukiyaki”, and “Singapura, Oh Singapura” sung by local artistes Alemay Fernandez, Dawn Ho, Leandra Lane, and Lou Peixin.

AIRMESH

Designed by lecturers Carlos Banon and Felix Raspall from the Singapore University of Technology and Design, AIRMESH is a lantern-inspired pavilion and the first structure in Singapore made of 3D-printed stainless steel that complies with building codes and is inhabitable for people. Visitors can enter the structure and look at the Gardens from different perspectives depending on where they position themselves within the structure.

Chinese Calligraphy Workshop – for Pioneer and Merdeka Generation ^

Calling all seniors from the Pioneer and Merdeka Generations! Enjoy a hands-on Chinese calligraphy session led by renowned Singaporean Chinese calligraphy master Benny Khong. Under his guidance, learn the art of Chinese calligraphy and try your hand at writing auspicious words.
