

ANNEX A: LANTERN SETS

Display	Description
Apricot Grove (杏林送暖) 	The Apricot Grove, which features apricot flowers at various stages of blooming, enhanced with gobo lighting effect to simulate falling flower petals, is inspired by the Chinese fable of Dong Feng “董奉”, who is a skilled and generous medical practitioner from the Three Kingdoms period “三国时代”. The display is sponsored by China Life Insurance (Singapore) Pte. Ltd. as a floral tribute to healthcare workers. Location: Golden Garden
Water Song (但愿人长久) 	Inspired by the famous poem 《水调歌头·明月几时有》, this set features five framed scenes, expressing the poet Su Shi’s (苏轼) deep longing for his family as he contemplates the beauty of the moon during Mid-Autumn. Location: Near ‘Planet’ Sculpture
Royal Family’s Walk (皇室出巡) 	The Royal Family’s Walk was first displayed at the Seoul Lantern Festival last year. Made of Hanji, a Korean traditional paper formed using the bark of the mulberry tree, it shows the royal procession of the king and queen in the early Joseon Dynasty, which is a common affair in the royal palace. This display is presented in partnership with the Embassy of the Republic of Korea and Seoul Tourism Organization. Location: Supertree Grove
Community Displays
Colonnade of Lights (灯廊) 	The Colonnade of Lights is a vibrant showcase of some 1,500 beautiful paper lanterns painted by the community as well as Gardens by the Bay’s senior workers. Take a stroll along the Colonnade and in the Flower Dome as you admire these colourful lanterns designed and hand-painted by people from various walks of life. Location: Supertree Grove and Flower Dome
Prosperity Rats (吉鼠呈祥)

Ten rat lanterns painted by the community and displayed during this year's Chinese New Year make a return this Mid-Autumn Festival to join in the celebrations.
